WASHINGTON, April 12 —The president this afternoon sent to the house the following message which was read, and together with the accompanying document was referred to the committee on education and labor

To the House of Representatives In response to a resolution of the house of representatives of the 12th February last, on the subject of negotiations concerning the immigration of Chinese to the United States I transmit herewith a report of the secretary of state to whom the matter was referred

R. B. HAYES

The report, after setting forth the resolution which was adopted on motion of Willis of Kentucky to which it is a response proceeds as follows

WHEREAS On the 25th of February 1878 a resolution was unanimously reported to the house of representatives requesting the president of the United States to open correspondence immediately with the governments of China and Great Britain with a view of securing a change or abrogation of all stipulations in existing treaties which permit unlimited immigration of Chinese to the United States therefore

Resolved That the president be requested if not incompatible with public interest to inform this house what steps have been taken in the direction taken by the said resolution and also to communicate any other information on this subject he may deem proper

He states that the committee resolution of the 25th of February requesting the president to open correspondence with China and Great Britain received no final action by congress and no steps therefore have been taken or could have been taken in formal pursuance of the request of the resolution The subject matter of the resolution the report continues was brought to the attention of the diplomatic representatives of the United States in China The minister was absent upon leave granted to enable him to attend upon the pleasure of the house from the legation at Peking from June 1878 until June, 1879 On April 23 1879 when about to return to his mission he was specially instructed that as the Chinese ministers in this country were understood not to have been furnished with powers and instructions to treat in regard to questions growing out of the presence of their people in California it would be necessary to conduct the negotiations on that subject in Peking The character of the Chinese movement toward our Pacific coast and the contract system under which it was believed to be conducted was specifically called to his attention and he was informed that the government shared the apprehensions entertained on the Pacific coast and that social and political derangements must result from an excessive increase of that people He was instructed to press earnestly on the Chinese government the grounds of that apprehension [illegible] the proper course to negotiate to relieve [illegible] but as our [illegible] treaty [illegible] was [illegible] to gain the results sought without disturbing the good feeling now existing between the two countries or impair the opportunities and prospects [illegible] treaties [illegible] was directed to [illegible] the position of the Chinese government and to give assurances which would enable us to proceed with such further negotiations as might be deemed necessary No information has yet been received which enables me to say more than that [illegible] and with respectful consideration and that a satisfactory solution can be reasonably anticipated [illegible] correspondence on the subject has been [illegible] with the government of Great Britain nor does it seem that it would [illegible] [illegible] WM M EVARTS

EFFECTS OF THE FROST

Last Winter's Damage to Shrubbery and Trees

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

As spring advances and [illegible] they [illegible] the harm that has been done [illegible] severity of the past winter [illegible] the sap was in full flow and [illegible] the check and [illegible] on our trees and shrubbery

We can learn [illegible] that will be of some use to us It shows what and where to plant so that we will not be disappointed in our trees [illegible] plant or cultivate and nurse them for several years and [illegible] grew into fine specimens a delight to [illegible] and then [illegible] our pets struck with a deadly blight is discouraging to planters

Let me [illegible] what is unharmed and what is killed or what is hardy or what is half hardy It is a pity that the term half hardy is [illegible] for the northern states and particularly for Oregon It [illegible] to plant many things that flourish a few years and then freeze or perhaps [illegible] this winter

The latter is not the worst for by it we only lose our money but by the former we lose money time labor hope [illegible] all

Of fruit trees the Italian prune has suffered the most particularly those planted on low ground a situation that should never be occupied by any prune tree and especially the Italian All prune trees, and the Italian in particular love a dry and sandy soil and never do well in wet ground This is a great loss to Oregon as thousands of prune trees were planted a few years back The mania for to such it amounted carried us away beyond the limits of prudence.

Next to prunes the peaches suffered the most, and are reported to be killed in many localities The buds of all the fruit trees have suffered very much and though they may blossom promisingly yet the germ may be injured so as to blight the fruit In 1860 or 61 we had a similar winter The bark of many fruit trees split open and if unattended to such trees all died in two or three years but if the cracks were tied up with cloths smeared with clay and cow manure, they healed up well Although many buds were killed it was a good fruit year

The list of shrubs that are killed is large All the tea roses are cut down to the ground or snow line, but the most of them will sprout up again and give as many blossoms as ever though later in the season If grafted or budded and not planted at least four inches above the graft the plant is entirely gone

Even many of the perpetuals or hardy garden roses have suffered badly, and will not give so many blossoms as usual

The Laurestine is entirely gone except that the snow cover saved the roots of the greater part of them

The Pyracantha suffered very much but will survive with perhaps the loss of the tops The Italian Cypress fared badly many of them are killed and all badly browned The Japan Persimmon are all cooked with here and there an exception The Irish Juniper are badly browned The Japan Juniper Fitz Royal and several foreign evergreens are killed All the California trees and shrubs are badly damaged. California Pine (Pinus insignis) Monterey Cypress, the state y[illegible] and all varieties of palm that were left out are dead

Euonimus, Pittosporums Heaths Myrtle, all the acacias bottle brush or metrosideros, melaleuca eucalyptus or blue gum eleagnus diosma and California big tree are very much browned The English laurel are badly hurt but the magnolia grandiflora stood the winter pretty well

This is a fearful list but if we will profit by this experience and plant nothing but hardy plants we will save much disappointment

INFLATION OF PRICES

The Chicago Tribune of recent date has a strong article on the speculative movement in prices witnessed during the last six months. We note it as directly in accord with views recently presented through these columns on the same subject. The Tribune regards the great advance in prices as unnatural and unhealthy and predicts consequences which will produce speedy financial and industrial disturbance. Our former paralysis was the result of a depression of prices which was mainly due to the explosion of speculation and inflation. Commercial and speculative confidence was destroyed and the standard of prices was abnormally depressed. Thousands were engulfed in ruin; all classes were driven to severe economy and half the laboring population was reduced to idleness. But good harvests restored prosperity, we exported largely, returning confidence revived industry and the energies of the country were again awakened to activity. Foreign indebtedness was paid by our exports, gold began to flow in from abroad, our currency got back to a specie basis and a full tide of prosperity seemed to be reopened to every enterprise. Then the country forgot its dearly bought lesson and the next result is thus described:

> Then was started the mania for getting rich quick and without labor; then began a fresh era of reckless gambling. Railroad managers entered upon the plan of consolidation—combination, pooling and robbery; bankrupt railroads were galvanized into new life; stocks that had been selling for five cents on the dollar were speedily rushed up to 25, 40 and to 80 cents; the prices of transportation were increased 120 per cent in the period of a few weeks and from $50 000 000 to $100 000 000 was added to the value of railroad and other stocks. Honest labor became irksome, and gambling and speculation as a means of getting rich suddenly have swallowed up time and capital unfortunately withdrawn from industry. With the revival of speculation came the revival of shoddy and the demoralization of social habits. The removal of the enforced economies following 1873 has been followed by an extravagance in personal expenditure without precedent. It has extended into every circle until to day the cost of wearing apparel of men, women and children, the cost of furniture and household adornments, the expenditures for entertainments, display, plate, jewelry, etc, exceeds anything previously known in the history of the American people. We are rapidly adopting the wildest luxury of European peoples, and are doing this upon the evanescent bubbles of speculation and gambling.

Proceeding from this statement the writer next shows that the enormous gains of railway companies have created a spasmodic increase of railway construction. At once this started the "iron boom" and gave manufacturers full swing for extortion. All iron and steel productions were advanced 100 per cent and rails were nearly trebled in price. Other staples sympathized. Cotton fabrics advanced 80 per cent, print paper 60 per cent, coal 33 per cent, and all articles of domestic consumption partook of the rise. This necessitated a new adjustment of values. The laborer finding the cost of living increased, demanded higher wages. In some trades a concession was readily made, in others it was resisted and the result was strikes and lockouts. Real estate improved in value, railroad stocks went up from 50 to over 300 per cent, and speculation and gambling in securities and commodities again became a mania. This high tide of inflation and over stimulated activity has been flowing seven or eight months, and the Tribune writer declares it has reached its highest point, and the ebb has already set in. It is shown that the enhanced cost of crude material and of labor shuts our wares out from foreign countries, and our exports have fallen to a lower amount than our imports. "Our warehouses," says our authority, "are filled with goods that cost too much to sell. We are overrun with foreign made articles. Between the overstocks of foreign and domestic merchandise, there must be a sacrifice, and a slaughter, and a loss, and a crash, that cannot fail to be disastrous."

All information tends to show an unfavorable change, which cannot be far in the future. Recent dispatches predict that a heavy drain of gold from the country will soon begin. Imports are steadily increasing while exports are as steadily decreasing, and it is next to certain that the returns at the close of the current year will show a heavy balance against the country. Revived prosperity, which sanguine ones predicted would be permanent, has apparently outrun itself already, and now the signs almost surely point to a change. What will become of the supposed values of hundreds of millions added to property within a year past? They will disappear as soon as the reverse begins to make itself actually felt. "Prices," says the writer we have quoted from, "will soon be tumbling, wages will go down and it will take perhaps years to recover the prosperity and solidity the country enjoyed before the recent wild and unnatural rise in prices, and destruction of industry, and of healthful social expenditure." This picture may be colored somewhat too highly, but the tendencies are certainly in the direction it indicates. Nothing indeed could be more unnatural, or more clearly indicate the instability and evanescence of our prosperous season than the extravagantly high prices of a few months past and the eagerness of speculation upon values of uncertain or fictitious kind.

JOURNALISM AGAIN

There still seems to exist in many minds a singular misconception of the functions of a newspaper. Many even yet can think of a newspaper only as the property of some political clique, organized for the rewards of office, who call themselves "the party." The journal which repudiates the position of servility to which this theory would assign it, and speaks its mind freely without fear or favor, is regarded as a very bad newspaper, actuated at once by malicious and treacherous motives. The claim of self seeking politicians of small calibre, who have no possible consequence except what they derive from petty official positions, to the fealty and support of newspapers, and the resentment they show when a newspaper refuses to be their servant and their property but pursues an independent course, are amazing instances of arrogance and insolence, which the press should check oftener than it does. The trouble is that there are so many beggarly newspapers which are obliged to accept this degrading servitude as a condition of existence. This keeps up in the minds of cliques who control parties for the sake of official gain the idea that a newspaper has no function whatever except as the slave of their particular objects. Now if there are any who still allow themselves to think that a newspaper like THE OREGONIAN exists merely to ratify the acts of small politicians without inquiring into their methods and purposes, or to run as auxiliary to their intrigues and objects, they may as well disabuse their minds at once. This journal proposes to itself different and larger objects.

A lackey of party henchmen like the late expert who helped to rob the state in the name of party regularity and got the brand put on him by a committee of investigation may run an organ for which he accepts the position of drudging servility in return for the crumbs grudgingly thrown him by the task masters of partisan jobbery, and be content. It is not in his nature to revolt from his slavish position or to look for anything better. Of course he has no other notion of a newspaper than the low and mean one above described. A newspaper, in his way of thinking, must be in harmony with some partisan clique, derive support from it, be its factotum, fetch and carry for it, and be its slave, its ox, its ass, its anything. To incur the displeasure of those who run the party would be in the judgment of such an organ grinder the loss of everything that makes life worth living. So of course he thinks THE OREGONIAN is satisfied [illegible] when it [illegible] been taken in the name of the republican party. The position is only in accord with the general idea of newspaper organ grinding. But the true newspaper which does not look to party managers for approval and support, or propose any objects for itself to be gained through party action, is independent of all political results and no party can [illegible] it. Its strength is in the impartiality with which it treats the events of the day and in the variety, fullness and accuracy of its news. On leading political topics and principles it has opinions and convictions as on other important subjects. Hence it may be classed as a republican or democratic journal as the case may be and still be an independent newspaper, far removed from and above the subserviency of organs to the schemes and behests of those who seek to control the action of party for what they can make out of it.

With deference to the air of superior wisdom assumed by the secretary of the board of trade we must say that the object for which his note (printed in another place) was written is by no means conclusively gained. This journal spoke of a circular issued by the board of trade as the most alarming statement considering the time and circumstances ever made about the Columbia river bar, remarking however that the intention under which it was issued was undoubtedly a good one. A great deal has recently been printed about the alleged shoaling of the bar and its increasing dangers, and this circular which has recently been very widely published tended to confirm that impression though we suppose nothing was farther from the intention of the officers of the board. The secretary's answer now is that the circular is a repetition of one which has been issued each year under authority of the board since 1875. Though we were not aware of that fact previously we do not see that it makes any real difference. The loss of the Dillarree drew special attention to this circular just issued anew, and the coincidence seemed to those not aware of all the facts to support the idea, which is altogether erroneous, that the bar is silting up and becoming extremely dangerous. On any subject relating to our commerce the authority of our board of trade is naturally of great weight abroad and this journal's remarks on the subject which the secretary has quite unnecessarily taken so testily were designed simply to show that the appearance—or reappearance as it proves—of the circular referred to just at this time was unfortunate in that it tended to confirm erroneous impressions though its intent was exactly the opposite. That such is the fact there are few, we think, will deny who have seen the circular published or commented on by many newspapers on this coast as affording proof of a most convincing nature that the entrance of the Columbia river is fully as dangerous and difficult as the worst enemies of our commerce have ever represented it.

Secretary Evarts' report upon pending negotiations between the United States and China submitted by the president yesterday to the house of representatives will not be received with favor by the anti Chinese party nor will it be considered candid by thoughtful and fair men. There is a singular want of direct statement with reference to the matters upon which information was demanded by congress and instead a great deal about Minister Seward's instructions with which the country is already familiar. One is impressed in reading the first part of the report that nothing whatever has been done, which is probably the true status of affairs, though the concluding remarks intimate that negotiations of highly important and secret character are now in progress. The secretary evidently is not eager to disturb existing relations and at the same time wishes to avoid the appearance of snubbing the Pacific coast.

In England there is one vote to ten inhabitants, in Scotland one to eleven, in Ireland one to twenty-five. In the United States the average is one voter to four and a half inhabitants. The tables show that in the English cities called boroughs suffrage is much more general than in the rural districts. In the former there is one voter to every six or seven inhabitants and in the latter one only to every twenty.

The Daily Oregonian.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 14, 1880.

CITY.

ANOTHER RAILROAD ENTERPRISE.—Mr. J. S. Leonard left here yesterday morning, bound for Texas ferry, on the Snake river, taking with him a complete outfit of machinery for a sawmill. He will proceed direct to Texas ferry, at which point the mill will be located. The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company propose to construct the present season 30 miles of road, starting from a point on Snake river at the ferry mentioned, and extending up into the Palouse country, and Mr. Leonard has the contract of furnishing 3,300,000 feet of lumber, which will be used in building that road. The contract for grading has not been let yet; but the contract with Leonard calls for the delivery of the ties by the 1st of July. As soon as the road is completed which is now being constructed from Celilo to Wallula, the large force of men employed and the entire "plant," will be transferred to Texas ferry, where the work of grading will be commenced and pushed forward with all possible vigor to an early completion. It is the purpose of the company to have the 30 miles completed this year in time to handle the grain crop. The new road will be of standard gauge. The road will ultimately be continued down on this side of Snake river until a junction is effected with the other line either at Wallula or Walla Walla. The extension of a road 30 miles up into the Palouse valley, will tap an immense wheat producing region, furnishing safe and speedy transportation of all the surplus grain raised, and thus conferring great commercial advantages on a rich and fertile section of the northwest coast.

FIENDISH CRUELTY.—An instance of fiendish cruelty occurred late last night, at the corner of First and Pine street, the perpetrator being the barkeeper of the Gambrinus saloon, directed and encouraged by the proprietor, Wm. Schmitz. The former poured coal oil on a rat which had been caught in a cage, then set fire to it and turned it loose. The cries of the tortured creature as it ran enveloped in fire, affected the young fiend and his employer with exquisite delight and provoked enthusiastic laughter on their part. Their contemptible cowardice appeared in the fact that no chance was given the poor creature to escape, as the match was applied before the cage was opened. Upon the approach of a reporter of THE OREGONIAN, the wretch who did the worst of the work skulked out of sight, and Schmitz thinking to conceal his identity declared that he did not know his name. No censure can be too severe for this cowardly and cruel action and its perpetrators.

SKIPPED OUT.—August St. Wodecki, a clerk in the employ of Olds & King, the Third street dry goods dealers, left on the State of California yesterday morning, leaving as mementoes unpaid bills to the amount of $500 due to different city merchants. About six months ago he married a daughter of Captain Marle on the Sandy. They went to housekeeping at the corner of Sixth and A. A few days ago he sold his household effects for $80, and took passage Monday night as above stated. Edwards & Birmingham, to whom he was indebted $13, telegraphed to the chief of police of Astoria to arrest St. Wodecki but the message was not received until half an hour after the departure of the steamer. [illegible] had been with Olds & King about a year, and the firm had every confidence in his business ability and integrity. His account was not overdrawn, and his record with them as far as they know is clean.

COURT ADJOURNED.—Perhaps the shortest regular term of the state circuit court ever held in this judicial district was the one which has just closed at St. Helens. Judge Bellinger opened court at St. Helens Monday morning with all the officers in attendance. The grand jury was appointed at 11 o'clock and began to make investigations. There was not a single criminal case reported to the jury so they reported the same to Judge Bellinger who discharged the grand jurors between 4 and 5 Monday afternoon. A few civil cases were tried and the court adjourned yesterday at 1 o'clock, and the judge, district attorney, and other attorneys in attendance, took the Astoria steamer and returned to this city.

YESTERDAY MORNING'S FIRE.—The fire, which broke out early yesterday morning, at the corner of Front and Main streets, was confined to Joseph Roemer's wagon and carriage shop and the livery stable of D. C. Southworth, adjoining. Mr. Roemer owned the frame building, in which his shop was located. His loss will reach about $1500; insurance $2850, in three companies. All the horses in Southworth's stable were turned out, many of them galloping away. All were caught, however, during the day, and returned to the owner. Mr. Southworth's loss to stable and contents is about $500; insured. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for the improvement of Front street, from Ash to Madison, by the laying of Belgian pavement, has been awarded S. S. Cook, at $2 17 per square yard, by the committee on streets and public property. Mr. Cook is required to enter into a bond of $30,000 for the faithful performance of the work according to the ordinance. He was allowed 48 hours from 11 A. M. yesterday in which to file undertaking. Cook furnished the bond required yesterday afternoon, with R. S. Perkins, John Ewry and A. N. King, as bondsmen, each justifying in the sum of $10,000, which was presented to and approved by the mayor at 4 P. M.

PROBABLY ERRONEOUS.—The rumor published yesterday as to the purchase of the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad by a company of capitalists headed by Henry Villard, Esq., is, we are assured, without sufficient foundation. The parties in Portland most likely to be informed on the subject give assurance that there is nothing to warrant the conclusion reached. It may be added that the great interests of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, which center at Portland, are first to be cared for by the managers of the company. Development of the plan on which the company is now working is paramount to all other undertakings.

OUT OF DEBT.—About ten days ago Sheriff Norden turned over to Mr. Wm. Showers, the county treasurer, over $110,000 in hard coin. The county coffers, which for months had been in a depleted condition, are now well filled, and Mr. Showers announces that he is able to honor all warrants presented at his office. He also notifies the public that interest upon all indorsed warrants prior to April 15, 1880, ceases from date. If you have warrants against old Multnomah present them without delay, for she is abundantly able to redeem her paper.

BLUE RIBBON CLUB.—Monday evening the Blue Ribbon Club of East Portland met and after transacting the usual routine business elected the following officers: J. N. Dennison, president, (re-elected); H. S. Williams, vice president, (re-elected); W. O. Oliver, first assistant vice president; H. Caso, second assistant vice president; Mrs. Johnson, third assistant vice president; Mrs. Dr. J. B. Smith, assistant secretary of the treasury. The society is in a flourishing condition. Additional members are received at each meeting.

AT THE HOSPITAL.—The many friends of Mr. Geo. D. Chaplin, the accomplished actor, will regret to learn that he is lying at St. Vincent Hospital in a very critical condition. But slender hopes of his recovery are entertained. Last evening, however, he was resting a little more comfortably. Drs. Jones and Rex are in attendance, and the kind and attentive Sisters are doing all in their power to alleviate the sufferings of the patient.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting in order to elect new trustees of the Scandinavian Lutheran church, of Portland, duly incorporated, will be held the 18th of April, next Sunday, at the old academy building, (the Sunday school room of the Presbyterian church), corner Seventh and Jefferson streets. Religious services will also hereafter be held there at the usual time, 7:30 P. M. Rev. A. E. Fridrichsen, pastor.

NEW DOCK.—Messrs. Thompson, DeHart & Co. have leased from J. T. Hunsaker of Oregon City, one hundred feet of river front, back of the National Hotel, now occupied by J. Sorensen as a wood yard. They will immediately commence the erection of a substantial double dock, part of which, the firm will occupy as a warehouse for some of their stock.

FOG BELL.—Mariners are informed that after May 1st, during the prevalence of fogs, a fog bell will be sounded from a frame tower erected on the outer end of the spit at Point-no-Point, Puget Sound, W. T. The bell will be operated by machinery, and the interval between the strokes will be 10 seconds.

J. J. OWEN may be consulted for a few days longer concerning his scientific remedy for the evils of over-population, at Room 2, No. 229½ Second st.

SENT TO JAIL.—Monday, officer Jos. Day arrested a young woman named Mary Gray, a servant girl, on a charge of larceny. The girl gave her age as 16 years. She was charged with the larceny of a silk dress from the residence of I. W. Holman. Yesterday the case was tried before Judge Stearns, who found the defendant guilty as charged and committed her to the county jail for the period of 12 days.

PRESENT YOUR CLAIMS.—Mr. J. N. Dolph, vice president of the O. S. N. Co., announces to the public generally that all persons holding claims against the Oregon Steam Navigation Company are required to present them at the office of the treasurer of the company within ten days from date.

COMMITTEE ON FIRE BOAT.—The board of fire underwriters yesterday appointed W. S. Cadwell, P. C. Schuyler and J. Bachman a committee to bring the matter of a fire boat before the common council in conjunction with a committee of the board of trade.

SPECIAL MEETING.—There will be a special meeting of the common council to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock for the transaction of general business.

TO TAKE CHARGE.—Mr. Brown, of Oakland, California, has purchased the lease of the St. Charles hotel of Mr. Samuel Coulter, and will take charge on the 1st of May.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will announce a decision this morning in this court upon the exceptions to the answer in the case of Gest v. Packwood et al.

PROPOSED TELEPHONE BETWEEN POINT ADAMS AND ASTORIA.

The Astorian of yesterday says: Mr. Charles Sweeney, secretary of the Portland merchants' exchange, is in the city, reviving the project of a telephone line to Point Adams lighthouse, Fort Stevens and intermediate points. Mr. Sweeney informs us that if Astoria will contribute one-half the cost of the object the exchange will furnish the balance of the money needed to complete the line. The benefits of a line over the route proposed have been fully discussed in the Astorian on a previous effort, and as we have never heard anything in opposition to it, we feel confident that Astorians will not hesitate to contribute the needed sum. Mr. Sweeney will remain in the city until Thursday, and we hope that the enterprising people of the place will call upon him and aid his efforts.

A GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.

The Odd Fellows will Celebrate the 61st Anniversary of the Order in Splendid Style at Mechanics' Fair Pavilion.

PROCEEDS FOR AN ORPHANS' HOME.

The Odd Fellows of this city and East Portland will depart from the usual manner of celebrating the anniversary of the establishment of their noble order instead of with parades orations etc., the 26th of April this year will be celebrated with in door festivities. Mechanics' Fair Pavilion, probably the only building in the state that will contain the crowd expected, has been secured for the occasion, which promises to be rich in esthetic and social enjoyment. The programme in brief (full particulars will be published soon) will be the ritual exercises laid down by the grand lodge, a concert under the direction of W. H. Kinross, for which the best talent in the city, including a full orchestra, has been engaged; drill by [illegible] Battalion in full uniform; and a grand dress ball. All the members of the order will be clothed in full regalia.

The entire proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the establishment of an Odd Fellows' orphans' home. THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA!
Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands can be seen at our office:

Forest Grove, Oregon, March 19, 1880.
I hereby certify that I have used the Oregon Kidney Tea, and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly 90 years old, came to Oregon in 1812 in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company, and since I begun using the Oregon Kidney Tea I enjoy good health. DAVID MUNROE.

Highland, Clackamas Co., Or., March 20 1880.
I have suffered with a disease of the kidneys for 6 or 7 years and for the last two months have been laid up with a pain in my back. A friend sent me a sample of the Oregon Kidney Tea and having used it one week I can do a good day's work. I have derived more benefit from it than from all the medicines I have ever taken.

THE OLD STEAMSHIP OREGON.

An Interesting Sketch of the History and Services of this Old and Now Wrecked Vessel.

A Seattle paper contains a long account of the bark Oregon, which was recently run down in the straits of Fuca by the bark Germania, and subsequently towed to Seabeck in a water-logged condition. The vessel has since been condemned and will be dismantled. The vessel was formerly the steamer Oregon, which brought so many of the "49-ers" to this coast and was at one time under command of the late [illegible]. She was built in New York in 1848 and was transformed into a sailing vessel some years ago.

The exchange says: "Thirty-one years ago—or more exactly, on the 1st of April, 1849—the steamship Oregon, second of the pioneer steamships of the Pacific, arrived at San Francisco from New York. She brought 300 passengers, the greater number of whom she picked up at Panama. The captain of the Oregon then was R. H. Pearson, while her first and second officers were Messrs. Whiting and Dall, all gentlemen remembered as skillful navigators and popular commanders. Among those who came on the Oregon were Fred. Billings, now president of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, also A. C. Peachy, subsequently the law partner, with Gen. H. W. Halleck, of Mr. Billings in San Francisco. W. M. Lent, the millionaire, was a passenger on the same steamer, and E. H. Mary; likewise Captain (afterward general) Keyes, Captain (afterward admiral) Goldsborough, Lieutenant Fauntleroy, A. K. P. Harmon and many others who have since been leading men of the city and state, and we may truthfully add, of the nation. The Oregon had a long and useful career. Her engines were subsequently taken out of her, and her rig made that of a bark, as which, under the ownership of the Seabeck Mill Company, she has long been in the Puget Sound lumber trade."

One Thousand and Twenty-Four Lots,

Fifty by one hundred feet in size, with streets sixty feet wide. Two hundred of these lots will be reserved for those who desire to improve and build this summer and fall. These lots will be sold on the same liberal terms that are offered in the Homestead proper.

Price.

All lots will be sold for $100 each, payable in installments of $5 per month, or the small sum of 16⅔ cents per day. No interest will be charged, and a good and sufficient Bond for Deed will be given upon the payment of the first installment of $5, and a Warranty Deed upon receipt of last installment, both without expense to purchaser.

Appreciation of Values.

By reference to The Oregonian of Feb. 15th, it will be found, that city property has advanced twenty-five per cent during the past year. As there has been no excitement, the rise is wholly attributable to the increasing immigration and the growing confidence inspired by our numerous railroad enterprises, and the development of our many natural resources, that have hitherto slumbered for lack of energetic men to develop them.

It is True,

That of all real estate investments the homestead plan is the best and safest, as all who invest are interested in making the whole property more valuable. To illustrate: Suppose A builds a house on his lot, and B owns a lot adjoining; B gets the benefit of A's improvement, while A is not injured thereby. This philosophy will apply to the entire property.

We have donated a lot to each of the principal churches for church purposes.

In addition to the above, two lots are set apart for public school purposes.

Division,

The division of this property will take place when the lots are all sold, or, in any event, not later than the

28th February, 1881,

at the Mechanics' Pavilion, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M., public notice of which will be given by publication in two principal journals in the State.

It will be made in the manner decided upon by a majority of the purchasers in the Homestead. Parties interested may appoint proxies to act for them if they desire to do so. Parties who do not attend at the time of the division, either in person or by proxy, will be bound by the plan settled upon by the majority of those who do so attend.

It is suggested by the purchasers that division might be made by placing the number of each lot and block in a wheel or box and the name of each party interested in the homestead in another—then a name will be drawn from one and a number from the other, and the lot so drawn deeded to the person whose name is so drawn, when all payments are made.

All but the first installment must be paid at the banking house of Ladd & Tilton, in the city of Portland.

BOARD OF TRADE AND COLUMBIA BAR.

PORTLAND, April 13, 1880.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

If you had accurately reported the speech made by the president of the board of trade of trade last evening you would have saved yourself the trouble of those erroneous condemnatory remarks in your article this morning and saved me also the trouble of writing this communication to you.

For your information, however, since your reporter has failed to give it to you, let me say that what Col. McCraken stated last night was that the circular of the board of trade referred to by you was a repetition made each year of a circular issued by the navigation committee in 1875 and ordered by this board to be kept as a standing circular or "Notice to Mariners," and has been placed on the back of every shipping document issued from the board of trade since 1875, and is nothing new, as every one knows. I do not know whether your knowledge of the bar and river is superior to that of the navigation committee who prepared this circular in 1876, of which more than 30,000 were issued and copies sent to every shipowner in the United States and Europe in 1875, 1876 and 1877. But I do know that it was carefully considered and was issued with the view of preventing accidents on the bar and discouraging vessels drawing 21 to 25 feet of water from coming here, and being detained for weeks waiting for a smooth bar. The circular says: "No vessel drawing over 20½ feet ought to cross the bar during winter." Why? The circular explains, "because anything over that draft is liable to cause vexatious delays, waiting for a smooth bar." Not that deep sea vessels may not, as heretofore, cross the bar. On the contrary, the circular goes on to say, "while ships drawing 22 to 23 feet of water have occasionally left the Columbia bar loaded with grain, still the class of vessels most recommended by the board of trade FOR THIS RIVER ought not to draw more than 20 feet when loaded." Is it wise to say to shipowners that vessels drawing over 20 feet of water can always be loaded at Portland? Where then is what you call "the most alarming statement ever made about the Columbia river bar was issued by the board of trade"? If any mariner or gentleman experienced in nautical affairs can say these statements are incorrect the navigation committee ought to be informed of it.

Secretary Board of Trade

"THE GOLD AND SILVER HERESY"

To the Editor of the Oregonian

Usually democrats are fairly reported in your paper but at Albany your reporter took sides with a minority A rose colored view of the hard money question was the result and Judge McArthur's recantation was given undue prominence A different speech at least in part from that delivered was published For instance he said when alluding to his speech advocating repudiation in 1870 "my conscience has upbraided me ever since" These words indicated a sudden change not the effect of study or reflection

As for myself deeply as I deplored Judge McArthur's attempt in 1870 to put the brand of repudiation on the greenbacks of democrats I sincerely regret that in 1880 he prostituted his talents to the behest of the bank ring In both attempts he was partially successful As to the boasted study of text books, etc there is not a recognized authority among the law books that does not declare that greenbacks are constitutional money

The iniquity of the national bank note issue is avowed by democrats but no lawyer now questions the constitutionality of the act If he should the entire chain of decisions of the supreme court from the foundation of the government would condemn him.

The government has coined copper and nickel, and if it should coin iron and brass are they not then constitutional money

In time of profound peace our paper money is and will be of equal value with gold, but no nation has ever sustained its credit during a severe struggle Even England suspended or allowed the Bank of England to suspend specie payments three times during this century In our own country, while war prevailed greenbacks and bonds were at a discount and equally so, for bonds were purchasable with greenbacks For several years the balance of trade has been in our favor and we do not need gold for foreign exchange Silver would be of little value to us if we had to export coin

While France, Germany, Russia and in fact all Europe is in a state bordering on war the United States from its isolated position can regulate its currency with the certain prospect of peace on our own borders while war or a condition of affairs nearly as destructive to their prosperity, is impending or existing in Europe

While I concede more than ordinary ability to Judge McArthur and commend the acknowledgement of his terrible mistake of 1870, I cannot believe he has maturely considered the consequences of his championship of gold and silver as the only constitutional money As to being captivated by the theories of Ohio's favorite son, Pendleton never advocated the pernicious doctrines set forth in the 8th resolution of 1870 I hope in less than a decade to witness a renunciation from the eminent jurist of his gold and silver heresy, as specific and not less emphatic than his last remarkable and surprising manifesto at Albany DANIEL GABY

Views of Southern Oregon Republicans

[From the Coast Mail]

As the time is at hand when delegates are to be chosen in this portion of the state, who as members of the state convention will have a voice in the selection of delegates to the national republican convention that is to nominate a candidate for president, we deem it a duty to express our views as to the choice of our national standard bearer We have always favored sending delegates to the state convention untrammelled by special instructions believing that intelligent and honest delegates will respect the views of their constituents in the choice of men to represent the party, and it sometimes happens that instructions seriously embarrass the actions of delegates after arriving at the point of duty. But delegates should be well informed as to the feeling of those whom they represent, and from a somewhat familiar acquaintance with the republicans of Coos and Curry counties, we have no hesitation in saying that General Grant is not their choice for president

The St. Gothard tunnel, recently completed, is the longest in the world It took seven years and five months to pierce it—a rapidity of execution never paralleled The work on the Mount Cenis tunnel proceeded only half so fast The men labored night and day in terms of eight hours each but so trying was the task that frequent holidays were necessary.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence

Spurts of disgusting mucous from the nostrils or upon the tonsils Watery Eyes Snuffles, Buzzing in the Ears Deafness Crackling sensations in the Head Intermittent Pains over the Eyes Fœtid Breath, Nasal Twang Scabs in the Nostrils and Tickling in the Throat are

SIGNS of CATARRH

No other such loathsome treacherous and undermining malady curses mankind One fifth of our Children die of diseases generated by its Infectious Poison, and one fourth of living men and women drag out miserable existences from the same cause While asleep, the impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs to poison every part of the system

Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the purulent virus and kill the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve, but certainly cure Catarrh at any stage It is the only remedy which in our judgment has ever yet really cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.
